

State of the Arts in Education Symposium
October 11, 2022, 8:30 AM - 11:30 AM at Asia Society Texas Center.

State of the Arts celebrates the impact of arts education on the student experience and frames community needs. Industry leaders will present arts education trends in Houston, progress toward equity in arts education, and the impact of a robust arts education. In partnership with HISD, local arts and culture organizations, community leaders and arts education investors, Arts Connect Houston is transforming arts education for 200,000 students in 276 schools. Attendees include Mayor Sylvester Turner, HISD Superintendent Millard House, Houston’s leading arts and culture organizations, their staff and board members.
